Primary Examiner

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The prior art fails to teach a remote sensing unit for collecting data for identifying a substance, among other features, comprising: a position determining mechanism for determining a geographic location of the remote sensing unit; an imaging device for generating a magnified image of the substance; and a transmitter transmitting the determined geographic location and the magnified image.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.

1) Sturgeon et al 5,726,884 disclose an integrated hazardous substance tracking system including a central relational database.
